DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 5 the second cavity and the second through channel are confusing since there is no mention of a first cavity or a first through channel. In lines 2-3 of claim 8 "the crankcase-internal-pressure control valve" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3, 5, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ampferer (4,493,295). Note Figure 2, which shows a first cavity 7, a valve cover 5, a first through channel 31, a second through channel 42, a second cavity 4, the second end of the second through channel being non-communicant with the second cavity (see column 3, lines 10-15).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2, 4, 6, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ampferer (4,493,295) in view of Balsley (4,602,607). Ampferer shows everything except second end of the second through channel being associated with a valve for controlling the crankcase internal pressure. Balsley teaches that it is old in the art to utilize a PCV (positive crankcase ventilation) valve 47 associated with the second end of the second through channel. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to modify Ampferer by employing a valve associated with the second end of the second through channel or tubing, the two being obvious variants, in order to control crankcase pressure and crankcase ventilation flow.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
